Between the Government of the Kingdom of Greece and the Government of the Kingdom of Sweden for the avoidance of double taxation and the prevention of fiscal evasion with respect to taxes on income and capital
The Government of the Kingdom of Greece and the Government of the Kingdom of Sweden,

Have agreed as follows:

Article I

This Convention applies to persons who are residents of one or both of the Contracting States.

Article II

1. This Convention shall apply to taxes on income and capital imposed on behalf of each Contracting State or of its political subdivisions or local authorities, irrespective of the manner in which they are levied.
2. There shall be regarded as taxes on income and capital all taxes imposed on total income, on total capital, or on the elements of income or of capital, including taxes on profits derived from the alienation of movable or immovable property and taxes on the total amounts of wages or salaries paid by enterprises.
3. The existing taxes to which this Convention shall apply are, in particular:
 - a) In the case of Greece:

 - a) He shall be deemed to be a resident of the State in which he has a permanent home available to him. If he has a permanent home available to him in both Contracting States, he shall be deemed to be a resident of the State with which his personal and economic relations are closest (hereinafter referred to as his centre of vital interests);
 - b) If the State in which he has his centre of vital interests cannot be determined, or if he has not a permanent home available to him either in State, he shall be deemed to be a resident of the State in which he has an habitual abode;
 - c) If he has an habitual abode in both Contracting States or in neither of them, he shall be deemed to be a resident of the Contracting State of which he is a national;
 - d) If he is a national of both Contracting States or of neither of them, the competent authorities of the States shall determine the question by mutual agreement.
 - cc) Where by reason of the provisions of sub-paragraph (aa) above a legal person is a resident of both Contracting States, then it shall be deemed to be a resident of the State in which its place of effective management is situated. The same provision shall apply to partnerships and associations which are not legal persons under the national laws by which they are governed.
 - e) The terms "resident of one of the Contracting States" and "resident of the other Contracting State" mean a person who is a resident of Greece or a person who is a resident of Sweden, as the context requires;
 - f) The terms "Greek enterprise" and "Swedish enterprise" mean respectively an industrial or commercial enterprise or undertaking carried on by a resident of Greece and an industrial or commercial enterprise or undertaking carried on by a resident of Sweden, and the terms "enterprise of one of the Contracting States" and "enterprise of the other Contracting State" mean a Greek enterprise or a Swedish enterprise, as the context requires;

ee) An enterprise of one of the Contracting States shall not be deemed to have a permanent establishment in the other Contracting State merely because it carries on business in that other State through a broker, general commission agent or any other agent of an independent status, where such persons are acting in the ordinary course of their business.

ff) The fact that a company which is a resident of one of the Contracting States controls or is controlled by a company which is a resident of the other Contracting State, or which carries on business in that other State (whether through a permanent establishment or otherwise), shall not of itself constitute either company a permanent establishment of the other.

j) The term "international traffic" includes traffic between places in one country in the course of a voyage which extends over more than one country.

2. In the application of the provisions of the present Convention by one of the Contracting States any term not otherwise defined shall, unless the context otherwise requires, have the meaning which it has under the laws in force in that State relating to the taxes which are the subject of the present Convention.

Article IV

1. The profits of an enterprise of one of the Contracting States shall be taxable only in that State unless the enterprise carries on business in the other Contracting State through a permanent establishment situated therein. If the enterprise carries on business as aforesaid, tax may be imposed in the other State on the profits of the enterprise but only on so much of them as is attributable to that permanent establishment.

2. Where an enterprise of one of the Contracting States carries on business in the other Contracting State through a permanent establishment situated therein, there shall in each State be attributed to that permanent establishment the profits which it might be expected to make if it were a distinct and separate enterprise engaged in the same or similar activities under the same or similar conditions and dealing quite independently with the enterprise of which it is a permanent establishment.

3. In the determination of the profits of a permanent establishment, there shall be allowed as deductions expenses which are incurred for the purposes of the permanent establishment, including executive and general administrative expenses so incurred, whether in the Contracting State in which the permanent establishment is situated or elsewhere.

4. In so far as it has been customary in one of the Contracting States to determine the profits to be attributed to a permanent establishment on the basis of an apportionment of the total profits of the enterprise to its various parts, nothing in paragraph (2) of this Article shall preclude such Contracting State from determining the profits to be taxed by such an apportionment as may be customary; the method of apportionment adopted shall, however, be such that the result shall be in accordance with the principles laid down in this Article.

5. No profits shall be attributed to a permanent establishment by reason of the mere purchase by that permanent establishment of goods or merchandise for the enterprise.

6. For the purposes of the preceding paragraphs, the profits to be attributed to the permanent establishment shall be determined by the same method year by year unless there is good and sufficient reason to the contrary.

Article V

Where

- a) an enterprise of one of the Contracting States participates directly or indirectly in the management, control or capital of an enterprise of the other Contracting State, or

b) the same persons participate directly or indirectly in the management, control or capital of an enterprise of one of the Contracting States and an enterprise of the other Contracting State, and in either case conditions are made or imposed between the two enterprises in their commercial or financial relations which differ from those which would be made between independent enterprises, then any profits which would, but for those conditions, have accrued to one of the enterprises, but, by reason of those conditions, have not so accrued, may be included in the profits of that enterprise and taxed accordingly.

Article VI

1. Notwithstanding the provisions of the foregoing Articles of this Convention, income derived from the operation in international traffic of ships registered in one of the Contracting States shall be exempt from tax in the other Contracting State, unless the enterprise is a resident of that other State; in such event the income may be taxed in the last-mentioned State.

2. Income from the operation of aircraft in international traffic shall be taxable only in the Contracting State in which the place of effective management of the enterprise is situated.

Article VII

1. Dividends paid by a company which is a resident of Sweden to a resident of Greece shall be exempt from Swedish tax.

2. Dividends paid by a company which is a resident of Greece to a resident of Sweden shall in Greece be subject to Greek income tax provided that such dividends are deducted from the amount of the company's total net income subject to the income tax on legal entities.

3. Dividends paid by a company which is a resident of Greece to a company which is a resident of Sweden shall be exempt from Swedish tax. This exemption shall not apply unless in accordance with the laws of Sweden the dividends would have been exempt from Swedish tax if the first-mentioned company had been a resident of Sweden and not a resident of Greece.

4. Paragraphs (1) and (2) of this Article shall not apply where a resident of one of the Contracting States has a permanent establishment in the other Contracting State and such dividends are directly associated with the business carried on through such permanent establishment; in such event Article IV of this Convention is applicable.

Article VIII

1. Interest arising in one of the Contracting States and paid to a resident of the other Contracting State shall be taxable in that other State.

2. Nevertheless, a Contracting State in which interest arises which is paid to a resident of the other Contracting State shall retain the right under its own law to tax such interest. If it exercises such right, the rate of the tax which it charges may not exceed 10 per cent on the amount of the interest. The competent authorities of the two States shall by mutual agreement settle the mode of application of such limitation.

3. The term "interest" employed in this Article means income from Government securities, bonds or debentures, whether or not secured by mortgage and whether or not carrying a right to participate in profits, and debt-claims of every kind, as well as all other income assimilated by the taxation law to income from money lent.

4. The provisions of the foregoing paragraphs shall not apply if the recipient of the interest, being a resident of one of the Contracting States, has in the other Contracting State in which the interest arises a permanent establishment with which the debt-claim from which the interest arises is effectively connected. In such a case, Article IV of this Convention shall apply.

5. Interest shall be deemed to arise in a Contracting State when the payer is that State itself, a political subdivision of that State or a resident of that State. Where, however, the person paying the interest, whether he is a resident of one of the Contracting States or not, possesses in one of the contracting States a permanent establishment for the requirements of which the loan on which the interest is paid was affected, and such interest is borne by such permanent establishment, then such interest shall be deemed to arise in the Contracting State in which the permanent establishment is situated.

6. Where, owing to a special relationship between the payer and the recipient or between either of them and some other person, the amount of interest paid, having regard to the indebtedness in respect of which it is paid, exceeds the amount which would have been agreed upon by the payer and the recipient in the absence of such relationship, the provisions of this Article shall apply only to the last-mentioned amount. In such a case, the excess part of the interest shall be taxable in accordance with the Laws of the two Contracting States due regard being had to the other provisions of this Convention.

Article IX

1. Royalties arising in one of the Contracting States and paid to a resident of the other Contracting State shall be taxable in that other State.

2. Nevertheless, a Contracting State in which royalties arise which are paid to a resident of the other Contracting State shall retain the right under its own law to tax such royalties. If it exercises such right, the rate of the tax which it charges may not exceed 5 percent of the gross amount of the royalties. The competent authorities of the two States shall by mutual agreement settle the mode of application of such limitation.

3. The term "royalties" employed in this Article means payments of any kind received as consideration for the use of, or the right to use, any copyright of literary, artistic or scientific work, any patent, trade mark, design or model, plan, secret process or formula, or for the use of, or the right to use, industrial, commercial or scientific equipment, or for information concerning industrial, commercial or scientific experience, but does not include any royalty or other amount paid in respect of the operation of a mine or quarry or of any other extraction of natural resources or in respect of cinematograph including television films.

4. Profits from the alienation of any property or rights mentioned in paragraph 3 shall be taxable only in the Contracting State of which the alienator is a resident.

5. The provisions of paragraphs 1, 2 and 4 shall not apply if the recipient of the royalties, being a resident of one of the Contracting States, has in the Contracting State in which the royalties arise a permanent establishment with which the right giving rise to the royalties is effectively connected. In such a case, Article IV of this Convention shall apply.

6. Where, owing to a special relationship between the payer and the recipient or between either of them and some other person, the amount of the royalties paid, having regard to the use or right for which they are paid, exceeds the amount which would have been agreed upon by the payer and the recipient in the absence of such relationship, the provisions of this Article shall apply only to the last-mentioned amount. In such a case, the excess part of the payments shall be taxable in accordance with the laws of the two Contracting States due regard being had to the other provisions of this Convention.

Article X

1. Income from immovable property may be taxed in the Contracting State in which such property is situated.

2. The term "immovable property" shall be defined in accordance with the laws of the Contracting State in which the property in question is situated. The term shall in any case include property accessory to immovable property, livestock and equipment of agricultural forestry enterprises, rights to which the provisions of general law respecting landed property apply, usufruct of immovable property and rights to variable or fixed payments as consideration for working of mineral deposits, sources and other natural resources; ships, boats and aircraft shall not be regarded as immovable property.

3. The provisions of paragraphs (1) and (2) above shall apply to income derived from the direct use or from the letting of immovable property or the use in any other form of such property, including income from agricultural or forestry enterprises. They shall likewise apply to profits from the alienation of immovable property.

4. The provisions of paragraph (1) to (3) above shall also apply to the income from immovable property of any enterprises other than agricultural or forestry enterprises and to income from immovable property used for the performance of professional services.

Article XI

A resident of one of the Contracting States shall be exempt in the other Contracting States from tax on gains from the sale, transfer, or exchange of capital assets other than immovable property, unless she has a permanent establishment in that other State and the gains are directly associated with the business carried on through such permanent establishment.

Article XII

Income derived by a resident of one of the Contracting States in respect of professional services or other independent activities of a similar character shall be taxable only in that Contracting State unless he has a fixed base regularly available to him in the other Contracting State for the purpose of performing his activities. If he has such a fixed base, such part of that income as is attributable to that base may be taxed in that other Contracting State.

Article XIII

1. Subject to the provisions of articles XIV, XV and XVI salaries, wages and other similar remuneration derived by a resident of one of the Contracting States in respect of an employment shall be taxable only in that State unless the employment is exercised in the other Contracting State. 2. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph (1) above, remuneration derived by a resident of one of the Contracting States in respect of an employment exercised in the other Contracting State shall be taxable in the first-mentioned State if:

a) the recipient is present in the other State for a period or periods not exceeding in the aggregate 183 days in the taxable year concerned, and

b) the remuneration is paid by or on behalf of an employer who is not a resident of the other State, and

3. Notwithstanding the preceding provisions of this Article, remuneration for personal services performed aboard:

a) a ship in international traffic and registered in one of the Contracting States may be taxed in that Contracting State unless the enterprise is a resident of the other State; in such event the income may be taxed in the last-mentioned State; and

b) an aircraft in international traffic may be taxed in the Contracting State in which the place of effective management of the enterprise is situated.

Article XIV

1. Remuneration, including pensions, paid by or out of funds created by one of the Contracting States or a political subdivision or local authority thereof to any individual in respect of services rendered to that State or subdivision or local authority thereof in the discharge of functions of a governmental nature may be taxed in that State. The same shall apply as regards other pensions paid by the State as well as pensions paid by social insurance institutions and similar organisations.

Article XX

1. Payments which a student or business apprentice from one of the Contracting States who is present in the other Contracting State solely for the purpose of his education or training receives for the purpose of his maintenance, education or training, shall not be taxed in that other State, provided that such payments are made to him from sources outside that other State.

2. An individual from one of the Contracting States who is present in the Contracting State solely as a student at a university, college or school in the other State or as a business apprentice, shall not be taxed in that other State for a period not exceeding three consecutive taxable years in respect of remuneration from employment in such other State, provided that

2. Income from sources within Greece which in accordance with this Convention may be taxed in Greece either directly or by deduction, shall be exempt from Swedish tax, provided that

a) where such income is

i) a dividend paid by a company being a resident of Greece to a person resident of Sweden, not being a company which is exempt from Swedish tax according to the provisions of paragraph (3) of Article VII, or

ii) any interest to which paragraph (2) of Article VIII applies and which is paid to a resident of Sweden, or

iii) any royalty to which paragraph (2) of Article IX applies and which is paid to a resident of Sweden, Swedish tax shall be charged on the gross amount of such income, but the amount of Greek income tax appropriate to that income shall be allowed as a credit against any Swedish tax payable in respect of that income;

b) when the Greek income tax appropriate to the dividend, the interest or the royalty, as the case may be, has been wholly relieved or reduced for a limited period of time, the credit against Swedish tax in respect of such income shall be allowed in an amount equal to the Greek income tax which would have been appropriate to the dividend, the interest or the royalty if no such relief had been given or no such reduction had been allowed;

3. The taxation on a permanent establishment which an enterprise of one of the Contracting States has in other Contracting State shall not be less favourably levied in that other State than the taxation levied on enterprise of that other State carrying on the same activities. This provision shall not be construed as obliging one of the Contracting States to grant to residents of the other Contracting State any personal allowances, reliefs and reductions for taxation purposes on account of civil status or family responsibilities which it grants to its own residents.

4. Enterprises of one of the Contracting States, the capital of which is wholly or partly owned or controlled, directly or indirectly, by one or more residents of the other Contracting State, shall not be subjected in the first-mentioned State to any taxation or any requirement connected therewith which is other or more burdensome than the taxation and connected requirements to which other similar enterprises of that first-mentioned State are or may be subjected.

Article XXVII

The competent authorities of the Contracting States may exchange such information (being information which is at their disposal under their respective taxation laws in the normal course of administration) as is necessary for carrying out the provisions of the present Convention or for the prevention of fraud or for the administration of statutory provisions against legal avoidance in relation to the taxes which are the subject of the present Convention.

Any information so exchanged shall be treated as secret and shall not be disclosed to any persons other than those, including a court, concerned with the assessment and collection of the taxes or the determination of appeals in relation thereto. Such a claim shall be filed before an appeal against the taxation in dispute is lodged with a Greek tax court. Should the claim be upheld, the competent authority to which the facts are so presented shall undertake to come to an agreement with the competent authority of the other Contracting State with a view to avoidance of the taxation in question.

2. Should any difficulty or doubt arise as to the interpretation or application of the present Convention, the competent authorities of the Contracting States shall settle the question by mutual agreement.
